

COMPETENCY PROFILE

STARS: BASICS IN CHILDCARE

WCC: ECE 104 (2 Credits)

Course provides students with an understanding of the basic core knowledge needed for working in a child care center.

CHILD GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT

- Demonstrate knowledge of age and culturally appropriate expectations.
- Demonstrate knowledge that children learn through play and active involvement in their environment.
- Demonstrate knowledge of planning activities based on the needs of children.

CHILD GUIDANCE

- Understand the importance of and demonstrate the ability to use positive communication skills.
- Demonstrate knowledge of how the use of positive communication skills influences a child's behavior.
- Understand the relationship between a child's age-appropriate behavior and adult expectations.
- Demonstrate techniques that promote positive behaviors in children.
- Demonstrate knowledge of factors which may influence a child's behavior.
- Identify culturally relevant community resources to assist in working with a child who exhibits challenging behavior.
- Demonstrate knowledge of conflict resolution.

HEALTH

- Show proper hand washing, appropriate diapering/toilet procedures and routine disinfecting of toys/equipment to help prevent the spread of communicable disease.
- Demonstrate an understanding of proper food handling procedures.
- Demonstrate knowledge of state licensing regulations to medication management.
- List five community resources for children with special needs.

SAFETY

- Demonstrate knowledge of child abuse indicators and mandatory reporting procedures.
- Demonstrate knowledge of safety procedures and accident prevention.

PROFESSIONALISM

- Demonstrate an understanding of licensing standards.
- Demonstrate an understanding of working with parents and partners.
- Demonstrate an understanding of professionalism as it relates to the early childhood field.

College Textbooks:

Child Care Center Licensing Guidebook, Second Edition; Washington State Department of Early Learning, 10/2006

This document is to certify that this student has completed the required coursework as defined by the Whatcom County Tech Prep Articulation Agreement and has demonstrated mastery for college credit. Further information about any aspect of this program may be obtained by contacting the school and instructor named on this profile.